ISAAC HAYWARD

Isaac Hayward was born in England, July 4, 1791. He married Ann Shepperd March 17, 1817. She was born about 1795.

At the end of an ocean voyage lasting five weeks and five days they and their children arrived at New York Harbor, in 1831. After two years of residence in Penn. they moved to Marion Co. Ohio. The Harding Memorial is on the old Isaac Hayward farm.

In 1848 they moved west again, settling LaGrange Co., Milford Township, Indiana. Here he entered 320 Acres from the government at $1.25 per A. It was nearly all wood and marshland, near a lake called Big Turkey.

In 1900 a cement plant was erected along Turkey Lake, and people wanted to name the town Hayward. Since the first letter in Hammond commenced with the letter H and the last letter D as in Hayward.

Thirteen children were born, some of whom remained in Ohio.

Isaac Hayward died Feb. 27, 1881 and Ann died April 4, 1860. They were buried in the Wright Cemetery, near Stroh.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and blurring.
